

Proclamation
Week of the Young Child
April 10-16, 2021

Whereas, 4Cs of Johnson County, along with the Iowa Association for the Education of Young Children and other local organizations, in conjunction with the National Association for the Education of Young Children, are celebrating the 50th Anniversary of the Week of the Young Child; and

Whereas, by highlighting the need for high-quality early care and education for all children and families, within our communities and the state, these groups are committed to the early care and education system in Iowa that will ensure every child, beginning at birth, is healthy and successful; and

Whereas, the latest research on brain development and how children learn and what we know about the return on investments in young children, we fully support the need for access to high quality early care and educational services; and

Whereas, the future of our communities and the economy of our state depends on the quality of the early care and education experiences, as well as access to the high quality early care and education programs provided to young children today; and

Whereas, we must recognize the vital work performed by early care and education professionals, express our gratitude for their important services and support efforts to see that they are fairly compensated.

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the Johnson County Board of Supervisors, do hereby proclaim April 10-16, 2021 as:

Week of the Young Child

in Johnson County, Iowa, and encourage all residents to focus on the needs of young children and their families, recognize the early childhood programs and services that meet those needs, and celebrate early learning, young children, educators, and families.

Signed this 1st day of April, 2021, in Johnson County, Iowa.

Pat Heiden, Chairperson
Johnson County Board of Supervisors

