

Saint Ambrose University Children's Campus

Certified Lead Teacher

St. Ambrose University Children's Campus has an opening for a Certified Lead Teacher in the 3-5 year old classroom. St. Ambrose University Children's Campus provides a comprehensive high quality early childhood education program, welcoming diverse populations and individual learning abilities. We look at the child as a whole, embracing and valuing their individuality and self-expression. In addition, we provide educational experiences for university students, emphasizing excellence in building relationships and connection with students, families and community, and best teaching practices. Candidates are responsible for daily classroom functions, communication with parents, collaboration with staff, curriculum and assessment, supporting university students in practicum, working with community agencies to address children's special needs and ongoing project approach integration in planning. Qualifications: Bachelor's degree in Early Childhood Education or in Elementary Education with an endorsement in early childhood education, with licensure, is preferred. Minimum of two years' experience as a lead teacher in an early childhood education center or program preferred. Evidence of experience and/or knowledge of the Project Approach for Learning, Teaching Strategies Gold, Conscious Discipline and differentiation within the classroom is desired. For a more detailed description of the program, please visit our website: www.sau.edu. St. Ambrose is an independent, comprehensive, and Catholic diocesan university firmly grounded in the liberal arts. The University offers a generous benefit package and competitive salary. Review of applications will take place immediately. People from underrepresented populations are encouraged to apply. Position is open until filled. Applicants should apply online at <https://Stambroseuniv.applicantlist.com> and upload cover letter, resume and transcripts. Letters of recommendation can be emailed to humanresources@sau.edu. EOE

Assistant Teacher

St. Ambrose University Children's Campus has an opening for an Assistant Teacher in the classroom for infants through preschool. Responsibilities: Collaborating with lead teacher in all aspects of the early childhood classroom including supervision, curriculum, assessment, guidance, communication with families and staff, and limited management of university student workers and students. Requirements: A two-year Associate Degree in Child Development or related field or an Infant/Toddler Child Development Associate. Position is open until filled. People from under-represented populations are encouraged to apply. St. Ambrose is an independent, comprehensive, and Catholic diocesan university firmly founded in the liberal arts. The University offers a generous benefit package and competitive pay. Please apply online at <https://stambroseuniv.applicantlist.com> and upload a cover letter, resume and contact information of three professional references. EOE