“Facebook” your views on preschool, child care and parenting services in Iowa. It is important for lawmakers to know what YOU think about these topics.

Share your experiences and ideas by going to Facebook and typing “Iowa Parent Voices” into the search box. Click the “Like” box for this page, and then join the discussion.

This is a non-partisan effort to bring the views of parents into the current debate. The “Iowa Parent Voices” site will maintain a neutral position. Parents who go to the site are free to express their own individual views. As input builds up on this site, lawmakers will be encouraged to go to the page to read parents’ comments.

Take a few minutes today to share your story, your experiences and your ideas about Iowa early childhood services.
