Free Application for Federal Student Aid or FAFSA, part of the U.S. Department of Education, allows you to apply for federal aid online. Below is a list of time saving suggestions that will help you apply for federal student aid online. All T.E.A.C.H. IOWA applicants are required to complete this application annually. If you cannot complete this application online, go to the college financial aid office or your public library to get the paperwork to do by mail. You must complete a new FAFSA for each new school year.
